

Variety – The Children’s Charity has a fabulous upcoming event and we are looking for event volunteers. Volunteering for Food Fight is a great opportunity to get hands on event experience, all while assisting a well known and respected children’s charity.

Event Description

Food Fight! The Battle for Brunch, presented by Marketplace IGA, is bringing a group of BC’s finest chefs into one room creating a delicious event set to amaze food lovers of all types and palate predilections. Each chef will try to win over guests’ taste buds by bringing their best brunch dish to the table; guests will be able to sample each dish and will declare one Chef the Food Fight Champ!

Who we are looking for

We are looking for those who are professional in appearance, attitude and work style. You are a competent multitasker and quick learner with excellent time management skills. You are friendly and helpful and enjoy working with people. Events experience is preferable, but not necessary.

What positions we are looking for

We are looking to fill a variety of positions including: hosts, reception, silent and live auction and Chef liaison. Each will include set up and/or tear down of the event. We have one position open for a Volunteer Leader which will involve overseeing event volunteers, working each position throughout the event and liaising with Event Coordinators. Please note: shift times vary, but you must be available for your full shift.
